

Colour Temperature

Colour Temperature or Colour Appearance, measured in degrees Kelvin (°K) represents the visual appearance of a light source. The higher the Kelvin rating given to the light source, the cooler its appearance will be.

